

Executive Order 2013-08, effective July 20, 2013, transferred The State Building Authority from the Department of Technology, Management, and Budget to the Department of Treasury. State Building Authority reports issued before July 20, 2013 are located under the Department of Technology, Management, and Budget. State Building Authority reports issued after July 20, 2013 will be located under the Department of Treasury.